About the Author

Shelly Christensen, MA is one of the leading voices in Jewish community inclusion of people with disabilities. She directed the award-winning Minneapolis Jewish Community Inclusion Program for People with Disabilities at Jewish Family and Children's Service of Minneapolis. Shelly is founder and executive director of Inclusion Innovations, and co-founder of Jewish Disability Awareness Month and the Jewish Leadership Institute on Disabilities and Inclusion. Shelly and her husband Rick have three children, one of whom was diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder. Their dreams of a Jewish education and participation in Jewish life were acknowledged and supported by the incredibly supportive partners at their synagogue, Bet Shalom Congregation near Minneapolis, MN.

"As we all pursue the dream of shalom, wholeness and completeness, the Guide enables every single child and adult to make that journey together."

Becca Hornstein, Founder and Former Executive Director, Council For Jews With Special Needs

"Written with spiritual sensitivity, it is comprehensive, clearly written and beautifully designed."

Ginny Thornburgh, Program Director, Interfaith Initiative, American Association of People with Disabilities
